Profile

Evan P. Banker is an associate at Chalats Hatten & Koupal PC. Mr. Banker is a member of the Colorado Bar and admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the District of Colorado. He earned his Juris Doctor from the University of Denver Sturm College of Law, where he represented low-income plaintiffs in the school's legal clinic and competed in ABA sponsored national appellate advocacy competitions, receiving special recognition for his writing. Before graduating, he gained experience working with the Hon. Robert S. Hyatt and with a major Denver civil defense firm. Mr. Banker's focus is on civil trial work, including ski related and other personal injuries, and professional negligence. Born and raised in New Jersey, Mr. Banker is an avid skier and is grateful to be able to incorporate his love of Colorado's mountain sports with his passion for representing his clients.
